AIC Annual Review 2022, call for documents.

Deadline February 28, 2023

Dear AIC Members,

As in previous years, AIC is preparing the Annual Report about the 2022 activities for each Association, Organization, and Study Group. I ask for your kind cooperation in collecting the material.

Please submit an interesting text document of approx. 500 - 700 words in .docx format. This may include:

- interesting projects;
- current research by each member;
- 2022 events/conferences/meeting details;
- future events (that can be added to our events calendar).

Please submit 2-3 jpeg high-quality images (300 dpi) with a short description (please send individual files, not embedded in any doc).

Please send a jpeg of your logo and include with all documents the contact person's name, email, and title (e.g., President, Secretary, Chair, etc.)

Please use your organization's name in the email subject line so that I can easily keep track.

Please do not send many emails with the requested documents but collect everything in one email, which I kindly ask you to send me no later than February 28, 2023.

Best Regards

Prof. Maurizio Rossi, MSc, PhD
